Alexandria Gazette 1880

WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOV. 17.

TALL MEN -As a couctry becomes settled and especially in cities where great numbers of human beings are crowded into comparatively a small place, men degenerate in height and the Trains leave Washington from depot of BALTrains leave Washington from depot of BALTIMORE & POTOMAC RAILROAD, cowomen are not only proverbially shorter than in the country but they are less mutcular. As there are thought to be exceptions to all rules. there are both tall gentlemen and ladies in al. cities. A majority of them, however, if traced so their birthplace, will be found to have come from the country. Kentucky and Tennessee produce the tallest men in the country. A young boy taken from the city, whose parents are below the usual height, and reared in either of those States, would probably quite overtop any of his family. The material abounds in the graics and meats of those splendid regions for developing the bones.

The Patagonians have long been celebrated for being the tallest race of men in existence. Magellan's associates give their average stature at seven feet tour inches. Commodore Byron's officers seldom saw one below seven feet, and some exceeded that measure. At the polar circles, especially North, the Esquimanx seldom towers above four feet and a half to five feet. As a whole the English are finely developed, tall and energetic. Americans are a compound of all nations on the globe, varying in siz., strength, height, weight, mental capacity and energy according to the predominance of blood from any particular source. A milk diet, of all food, is most favorable for a large, tall frame in early life.
